Five ways to involve your kids in stewardship:

1. Share clothes with a sibling or parent.

2. Harvest what you plant, share what you harvest.

3. Shut off lights and appliances not in use.

4. Consolidate car trips; read a book while you wait.

5. Recycle everything from cans to clothes.
